

Name:
Date:

Ancient Civilization Grid

1. Pick a task!
2. When you have finished a task, color that section.
3. Consider sharing your product with us at orsch.net. We will show it off for you!

You can find most of the information at www.ushistory.org/civ/, but are welcome to find the info anywhere you like.

<h2>Draw a map of early human migration.</h2>		Learn about Lucy. Write down 5 interesting facts.
Pick one of the early human civilizations from pg 2c, "A Page Right Out of History" (ushistory.org/civ/). Create 10 truths and a lie about the civilization you chose.	Write a short summary describing the path of early human migration. 	Read the "Historians and Their Time" (1c) page from ushistory.org/civ/ Define the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• B.C.</li> <li>• A.D.</li> <li>• B.C.E.</li> <li>• C.E.</li> </ul> Then tell why current historians prefer B.C.E., and C.E.
Who is credited as the first historian? Find the answer and create a collage of pictures and facts about him.	Ask each of your family members if they know the difference between "history" and "prehistory." Teach them the difference if they don't know :).
Make a Venn Diagram comparing archaeologists and anthropologists. (Get pretty specific.)		What is a paleoanthropologist? <hr/> <hr/> <hr/>
Answer these two questions in detail: What is a geographer? What is a historian?

List here the things you find most interesting about the study of early humans: